Naples, Sept. 29.

FRom Sicily we are told, that the Officers of the Marine refuse to obey the Marquis de Villa Fiel, who is lately made General of the Gallies, notwithstanding the expreſs Orders from the Court at Madrid. To prevent the prejudice this may bring upon the Kings affairs, our Viceroy is ſending thither the Marquis de Bayonne to take upon him the Command of General of the Gallies pro interim, till the Kings farther pleaſure be known. Letters have been written hither from the Court of Spain to the Biſhops of this Kingdom, to exhort them to contribute to the expences of the War of Sicily.

Warſaw, Octob. 1. The 28 paſt we received Letters from Bialacerkiew of the 13th of the ſame month, which give us this Account, that General Romadonowski advancing with an Army of 100000 men, as well Moſcovites as Coſſacks, encamped at Wiſh between Faſſi and the Nieſter, about four Leagues from Czechrim, which the Turks beſieged, and which had already reſiſted five ſeveral Aſſaults. The Turks and Tartars, who likewiſe made about 100000 Men, under the command of Zaitan Baſſa, thereupon drew off from the Siege. The next day the two Armies engaged in a Battel, which was fought with great courage and obſtinacy, and with great ſlaughter of men on both ſides; ſo that it was hard to ſay who had the better, ſave that the Moſcovites relieved Czhecrim: but theſe Letters being of ſomewhat an old date, we know not ſtill what to believe of the reports that go about that the Turks have finally made themſelves Maſters of Czhecrim, putting all the Gariſon to the Sword. We have ſeveral advices from Riga, which ſay, that the Suedes Army was ready to march; but that has been ſo often ſaid, that in Pruſsia the people begin to loſe the apprehenſions they had of that march.

Copenhagen, Octob. 16. This morning Admiral Juels is come with 14 Men of War into the Sound, being forced to come home through want of Proviſions, which when they have taken in, at leaſt the lighteſt Ships, will put to Sea again, and go and block up Gotzenburg. In Schonen nothing of moment paſſes, the Suedes blocking up Chriſtianſtadt. The Heer Klingenberg is parted hence for Bremen, to aſſiſt there on the part of our King at the Conferences to be held for the diviſion of the Conqueſts in Bremen.

From the Camp before Stetin, Octob. 18. This day ſeveral Deſerters are come out of the Town, and tell us, that ſome of the principal Burghers, finding they cannot expect to be relieved, and that they muſt at laſt fall into the hands of the Elector of Brandenburg, think it better to make good Conditions for themſelves by an early Surrender, than to expoſe themſelves to the laſt extremity, ſo that we hope now to ſee a ſudden end of this Siege; and the rather, for that we are come to the very Walls of the Town. His Electoral Highneſs received advice yeſterday, that the Count of Coningſmarke, upon the King of Denmarks return to the Iſle of Rugen, had quite abandoned the ſame, except one Fort, in which he had left a ſtrong Gariſon.

Strasburg, Octob. 18. The following Liſt of the killed and wounded (which comes from a good hand in the Imperial Army) though it be ſomewhat late, will give you the beſt Account you can expect from hence of the loſs the Imperialiſts ſuſtained in the Action that happened near Kochesberg, between them and the French on the 7th inſtant.

Briſac, Octob. 22. The Armies were encamped for ſeveral days ſo near each other, that it was thought neither could decamp without giving the other an opportunity to attack their Rear; but on the 19 inſtant the Mareſchal de Crequi quitted his quarters at Kochesberg, and
